Description

Financial contribution of the Slovak Republic for the basic humanitarian needs of the population in Yemen in the most affected areas. The humanitarian crises in Yemen is one of the largest global humanitarian crises, where the population suffers from famine and cholera (more than 14 million people). In response to the alarming humanitarian situation, the UNDP - UNICEF - WHO coalition was created in order to manage the needed interventions. The main aim of the financial contribution is the reconstruction of 10 hospitals and 10 nutritious centers in the most affected areas of Yemen.
