Description

The project Young Citizens – Actors of Transformation Processes in Tunisia contributes to the support of active citizenship with emphasis on the role of potential young leaders and youth so they play active and constructive role in the process of transforming Tunisian society. The project also directs their activities towards helping to building public dialogue. The project aims to strengthen the capacity of youth in Tunisia (in the regions of El Kef, Jendouba, Béja and Siliana) for active civil and public life via: 1. Strengthening capacities of potential young leaders from Tunisian youth in areas of non-violent conflict resolution, leadership skills, and active citizenship. 2. Making Tunisian youth from the region of El Kef, Jendouba, Béja and Siliana more sensitive to the need for using public dialogue in the process of society transformation. 3. Strengthening abilities of non-governmental organizations in the region of El Kef to build capacity in areas of public dialogue and active citizenship.
