Description

The project Conflict Resolution in Development Context II contributes to promoting development education at selected universities in Slovakia in an effort to give expertise to university students and internal academic staff in development and peace education topics in the context of the National Strategy for Global Education for 2012 – 2016 and new Sustainable Development Goals (Agenda 2030). The goal of the project is to include the topics of development in the curricula at selected universities and to build the internal capacities through: 1. Developing conditions for including objectives, principles and topics of development education in the curricula of selected universities, 2. Strengthening internal staff capacities at selected universities in the field of development and peace education.
