Description

The main objective of the project: Sharing know-how in the area of NGO capacity building and strengthening civic participation. ADRA Slovakia sees the need to strengthen local society and improve the situation in Ukraine. International experience and assistance in setting up such projects by the Institute "Respublica" is appreciated and perceived as very necessary. Expert volunteers will contribute their experience from different projects and countries to capacity building in local organizations and set up activities to strengthen the company in Ukraine in the areas of expertise, both now and in the future. The aim of the project is also to build the development capacities of an expert volunteer to be used for further development projects.
