Description

Main objective of the project: Promoter in collaboration St. Kizito Boys Training Centre Utawala is running in the capital of Kenya, rehabilitation program for street children Volunteer activities will focus on this center. The Rehabilitation Center has been operating in Nairobi since 2008 and is supported financially and logistically by the promoter. The Kizito project in Nairobi specializes in rehabilitation of street children and their subsequent integration into society. It carries out school and extracurricular activities for children. Furthermore, in the activities in Nairobi, the promoter supports 2 anti-nutritional centers, the HIV center The project provides an ideal environment for volunteering and creates sufficient conditions for this. The activities of the volunteer will be carried out under the supervision of an experienced employee of the University of St. Elizabeth. The new volunteer will be able to build on the activities undertaken by previous volunteers. The project also aims to support local capacity building, there are not enough experts and social workers in the area, and volunteer activities in cooperation with the expert will lead to the training of local experts. The project also aims to promote intercultural dialogue, foster solidarity and understanding between nations and long-term partnerships between organizations and communities in Kenya. The stay of the volunteer will be part of the preparation for work in the area of development cooperation Detailed description of volunteer activities: The first two months of adaptation to the environment. For the next two months the volunteer will work more independently and will also participate in the individual logistics activities of the project. The volunteer will become acquainted with and will participate in providing logistic and organizational services of the Slovak logistics center, which includes the provision and coordination of individual activities. Furthermore, the volunteer will participate in work with street children in rehabilitation centers for street children, where they will become acquainted with and participate in the principles of re-socialization. He / she will become acquainted with the activities in the petitioner's anti-malnutrition centers in Nairobi and will participate in their management. He will participate in education aimed at preventing the spread of infectious diseases with an emphasis on the current pandemic caused by the Covid 19 virus. The volunteer will gain experience in local fundraising.
