Description

The project proposal will support the implementation of the Sustainable Development through Humanitarian Aid Volunteers 3 (SuDHAV3) project which is a part of the European initiative EU Aid Volunteers (EUAV). The EUAV programme's ambition is to strengthen the EU capacity to provide humanitarian aid focused on lives protection, human dignity and building capacities of vulnerable communities in low-income countries. The SuDHAV3 project will deploy 7 expert humanitarian volunteers from the EU to Albania, Georgia and Turkey. The volunteers will strengthen capacities of their hosting organisations and help vulnerable local communities in sectors of Education, Health, Equal opportunities and Gender equality, Employment and Civil society. The target groups are excluded Roma, Egyptian communities, people with health-related and socio-economic disadvantages in Albania, women and children suffering from domestic violence in Georgia, Syrian refugee communities, especially children and women in Turkey.
