Description

On 16 - 20 September 2019, a 5-member delegation from Serbia visited Slovakia. The primary objective of the study visit was to create conditions for developing cooperation and establishing contacts between representatives of creative industries from Niš and Bratislava. The participants of the study visit were acquainted with the model of public-private partnership in support of creative industries in Slovakia (Danubiana Meulensteen Art Museum), models of public support of creative industries (Nová Cvernovka, Stará Tržnica), information about models they can implement in Serbia and they also learned about the functioning of successful coworking spaces in Bratislava (SBA, InQb). The study visit also helped facilitate the establishment of a network of contacts and future cooperation between organizations in Niš and Bratislava that deal with the creative industry.
