Description

In the context of Ukraine's post-war recovery and reform efforts, the IMF approved a 4-year financial support program for Ukraine through the Extended Fund Facility (EFF). It includes an extensive capacity building program "Ukraine Capacity Development Fund", adapted to Ukraine's absorption capabilities and limitations related to the ongoing conflict. The goal is to support Ukraine through measures in the area of macroeconomic and financial stability, and structural reforms in the management of public finances, including anti-corruption.
