Description

The proposed project will be conducted in Serbia in the period from 1st of September 2013 till 31st of July 2014. The project will focus on the area of technical assistance to the countries of Western Balkans (WES BAL) and, in particular, it concerns the priority goal of "supporting the European and Euro-Atlantic perspective of the WES BAL region via transferring authentic experience from the reformation and accession process in Slovakia". The overarching goal of the project is to: "facilitate Serbia's aspiration for integration via transferring Slovakia's experience with implementation of integration reforms and with informing the wide public about the benefits of membership in the Euro-Atlantic structures." By means of expert discussion, to facilitate a consistent supply of relevant information about the questions concerning the Euro-Atlantic integration to the wider public, with the aim of overcoming the indifferent and even negative attitude of Serbia's public toward NATO.
