Description

The project aims to solve the problems of people living in the east of Ukraine in the Bakhmut and Avdiiv regions in the Donetsk area. The project will ensure the reconstruction of 5 and the equipment of 15 social centers aimed at supporting children and the inhabitants of the region will be provided with assistance in solving their psychosocial problems, for example, working and family life. This will support the elimination of the consequences of the long-term armed conflict and thus contribute to creating better conditions for the socio-economic development of Ukraine.
