Description

Main objective of the project: St. Cecilia Orphanage in Ha Buasono near Maseru is a health and social care provider for orphans in Lesotho. Lesotho is a country with a high prevalence of HIV, resulting in a large number of orphans that the local community cannot support. The promoter and co-coordinator of the project is St. Elizabeth's College, no. The project has a long successful tradition and was founded in 2005 with the support of the University in cooperation with the parish Ha Buasono. The orphanage provides care to 56 HIV positive and HIV negative children. St. Cecilia Orphanage is located 30 km from the capital Maseru. The age composition of children ranges from 5 years to 17. Experts of the University provide health and social care to children in cooperation with local workers. They provide logistic activities, the University provides financial support to the orphanage. It provides school attendance, extracurricular activities, health checks and preparation for life after leaving the orphanage. The project provides an ideal environment for volunteering and creates sufficient conditions for this. The activities of the volunteer will be carried out under the supervision of an experienced employee of the University of St. Elizabeth. The new volunteer will be able to build on the activities undertaken by previous volunteers. The project also aims to support local capacity building, there are not enough experts and social workers in the area, and volunteer activities in collaboration with the expert will lead to local experts training. The project also aims to promote intercultural dialogue, foster solidarity and understanding between nations and long-term partnerships between organizations and communities in Lesotho. The stay of the volunteer will be part of the preparation for work in the area of development cooperation. The volunteer will participate in ensuring the operation of the orphanage and its supply. He will also attend regular staff meetings in the orphanage, where he will participate in the analysis of individual activities and propose possible improvements. The volunteer will carry out his activities in coordination with a social worker from Slovakia who works in St. Cecilia Orphanage. The volunteer will also
